The DuBois Dungeons and Dragons Group under the direction of Dungeon Master Rich Guth will be hosting two Extra Life benefit events for UPMC Children's Hospital on Saturday

October 29th, 2016

and

November 5, 2016

at the

DuBois Public Library.

Gamers and Non-Gamers alike who want to help out sick kids are welcome.

All required materials will be provided during the event.

Participants are asked to donate $1, $5, or $10 to participate in the games with special character enhancements and magic items available at each donation level.

We hope to see you there! However, if you can't make it on either day, you can still donate using the web link above.

Come to help kids in need by donating to the cause and stay for the fun and camaraderie! We will be playing  from 12:00pm to 4:00pm. Novices are encouraged to attend. You don't need to have any experience to enjoy yourself.

Be a hero. Play D&D for Extra Life.
